

Welcome to Maryland

1988-89

The Latest Terp Carrier

In the rich tradition of a program known for its Carriers of the Past

The history of University of Maryland basketball includes the names of gifted players like Len Elmore, Tom McMillen, Buck Williams and Ben Coleman — all men of huge physical stature who left an equally large imprint on the game of college basketball. Television analyst Al McGuire once termed players of great bulk and stature who toiled in the lane, "aircraft carriers". In that tradition, the 1988-89 Maryland basketball team features the latest Terp Carrier, junior post Tony Massenburg.

Welcome to another season in the storied history of the University of Maryland basketball.

Pictured above are Tom McMillen, The Terp and Len Elmore. Both made news in 1988: McMillen was admitted to the all-time Academic All-American team and Elmore, a Harvard Law School graduate, was Marshall of the Terp Homecoming Parade. On the front cover is the latest Terp Carrier, Tony Massenburg.

Coming to Cole Field House for a Maryland game is entering a building where the past is treasured, and where today's best conference, the ACC, plays. It is the home of national rankings, a place where perhaps the most significant Final Four in history was played (1966, Texas El Paso over Kentucky). Tom McMillen, Albert King, Len Elmore, Len Bias, Gene Shue, and Buck Williams played there; so did Michael Jordan, David Thompson, and Ralph Sampson. The floor has hosted the best high school players, 33 NCAA Tournament games, and coaching innovators like Bones McKinney (the coaching towel), Everett Case (basketball as sport in the ACC), and Adolph Rupp (winning championships). Coaching there now is the man, Bob Wade, who made Baltimore scholastic basketball a worthy rival to any city's. It is a home to basketball fanatics, from the rabid Terp crowd and its pep band, to the competing teams who know they are in a hall that was built to celebrate basketball.

Before Your Visit

Contact the sports information office, which is itself staffed by hoop fanatics. Ivan Meltzer is in charge of game credentials; he requests that you call at least three days before an event. Because Cole is a hallowed hall, Ivan will screen requests carefully to insure a working press row. If you want to take pictures, make your request on letterhead at least a week before the game.

Interviews with student-athletes must be ordered through Sports Information (Ivan Meltzer, Joe Blair or Herb Hartnett). They need 24 hours advance notice to arrange an interview, which is best accomplished a half-hour before afternoon practice. Reporters are asked to check-in at the Sports Information Office; they will be escorted to the court level. Post-practice interviews may be arranged when not in conflict with class schedules. Interviews cannot be arranged through the basketball office.

Student-athletes will return phone calls when requested; their phone numbers will not be distributed.

Televison crews at practice to conduct interviews can shoot background footage during the first 10 minutes of any practice.

Coach Bob Wade can best be reached during office hours from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Coach Wade requests that all contact for interviews with him be made through the Sports Information Office. Reporters should wait for interviews in the sports information office.

Coach Wade is also available for interviews 15 minutes prior to a practice, and for a brief period afterward.

Coach Wade is available each Tuesday by telephone as he takes part in the ACC Basketball Teleconference. The Conference features all eight league coaches speaking in alphabetical order by school. Coach Wade is in the uncomfortable/sticky position of being wedged between Yellow Jackets and Tar Heels.

Recorded interviews with Coach Wade are provided for the press by Maryland's University radio station, WMUC, at 301-454-7420.

Working press and photo credentials will be mailed by Ivan Meltzer or Dee Stough when possible. Credentials that can't be mailed are available at the rear entrance of Cole Field House, opposite Byrd Stadium.

Press parking is available in the concourse of Byrd Stadium by the football press box. The stadium gate gaining admittance to press parking is nearly opposite the back of Cole Field House.

The Cole press boxes are located on the floor (print media, radio stations and TV broadcasting the game), and over the court (some radio, TV cameras). The upper camera positions in Cole are on the same side of the court as the TV announcers.

Photographers before the game may pick-up arm bands in the press room located on the second floor of Cole just above the rear press entrance. A photo pass without an arm band will not allow access to the Cole floor. Photo boxes are marked at each end of the basketball floor; photographers are prohibited from shooting in areas outside the boxes.

Working press who intend to use computers should indicate so when ordering press passes. Telephones are not available at the press tables to transmit stories and may not be ordered; telephones are available in the press room. Those wishing a private line in the press room may order one from Chesapeake & Potomac Telphone Company of Maryland, 301-852-4540.

Post Game

Complete statistics will be distributed, including a play-by-play authored by Jeff Rhodes, who has turned mundane one line reports on the action into memorable one-liners.

Society's latest office miracle, the Fax machine, allows us to easily transmit boxes for those requesting it.

Post-Game Interviews for Maryland players will be held in its lockerroom. Players will remain dressed for 20 minutes after they enter the lockerroom for individual interviews. Coach Wade is then taken to the Press Room one floor above after these interviews are closed. Visiting team interviews are held outside their lockerroom.

A wrap-up of all Maryland games is on the Terphone (301-454-TERP).

Acting President

Dr. William E. Kirwan

A mathematician of international repute with 24 years of service to the University of Maryland, College Park, Dr. Kirwan is in his second stint as acting chief executive officer. He has been Professor of Mathematics (1972 to the present), Chairman of the Department (1977 to 1981), Vice Chancellor and now Vice President for Academic Affairs (1981 to the present), and Provost (1986 to the present). In 1982 he directed the school as Acting Chancellor for four months; he has directed the campus since July 1 as Acting President. His only separations from Maryland since his arrival in 1964 as Assistant Professor were to act as visiting lecturer at the University of London (1966-67), and to serve as Program Director of the National Science Foundation (1975-76).

Dr. Kirwan served as an assistant instructor at Rutgers while earning his master's (1962) and Ph.D. (1964) degrees. He was appointed an assistant professor at Maryland in 1964 and he has been here since. A native of Kentucky, he earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Kentucky in 1960 and was awarded Phi Beta Kappa honors. He went to Kentucky on a football scholarship, and his father also coached there.

His service to the University includes chairing committees on Promotion & Tenure, Academic Planning, and University Priorities.

Director of Athletics

Lew Perkins

An educator and administrator who has gained national bearing in intercollegiate athletics, Perkins earned his way to Maryland by building one athletic department from its beginning (South Carolina at Aiken, 1969-80), infusing a traditional program with record-setting growth (Pennsylvania, 1980-83), and rebuilding the fortunes of Wichita State (1983-87). His arrival at Maryland in the spring of 1987 signalled a renewed drive on the University's part to achieve equilibrium between quality academics and athletics. Since then Perkins has restructured the department's staffing, putting top priority on academics with the creation of a distinguished Academic Support Unit. Football will benefit from an ambitious development drive that unites almost $3 million in state funds with University contributions to upgrade Maryland facilities. Sports once labelled "non-revenue" are now Varsity Sports. An NCAA field hockey championship was won in his first autumn, women's basketball won the ACC Championship and advanced to the Final Eight, and men's basketball surprised by advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

A native of Massachusetts, Perkins played baskebtall for some of Iowa's most powerful teams (1965-67), earning his undergraduate degree in 1967. He went to USC-Aiken two years later as Head Basketball Coach and Director of Athletics, achieving success in both areas. His appointment at Pennsylvania as Associate Director was marked by helping to build the most successful Ivy League football program of the past decade from a base of two wins in three years.

His challenge at Wichita State was to unite the athletic department with the University and community, and with its athletic peers in the NCAA. His rewards included being cited by the Arizona Republic as one of the nation's best athletic directors, and in an unprecented move, Wichita State was cited by the NCAA for running an exemplary program.

Perkins, 43, is married to the former Gwen Flaum. Like Lew, she earned both an undergraduate degree from Iowa and a master's in education from the University of South Carolina. They have two daughters, Amy, 17, and Holly, 15.

The Maryland Men's Basketball Press Guide was written by Ivan Meltzer with considerable help from Herb Hartnett, Joe Blair and Heather Lewis. Editorial assistance by the Sports Information staff (Chuck Walsh, Tracy Armstrong, Nick Ritzmann and Dee Stough). Photographs are by Larry Crouse and Cindy Grim of the University's Photo Services, Brian Lewis, Theresa Kramer, Diane Guthrie and Mitchell Layton. The cover photography is a combination of the efforts of Brian Lewis and the United States Department of the Navy. Special thanks to Jerald E. Anderson, Fleet Recreation Director, for his assistance in securing the proper photographs. This book was accomplished with the considerable help of Charlie Guillette of Colonial Lithograph, whose many talents in both design and printing were put to the test with this project. The University's Paula Mandelman was also of considerable help in printing the book.

The University

Chartered in 1856, The University of Maryland College Park has grown far beyond its founders' vision as a college for planters' sons. Today, the University has emerged as a leading force in American higher education. With more than 110 majors for undergraduates to choose from, College Park offers one of the most comprehensive course selections available. At the cutting edge of science and technology, the campus is also firmly grounded in the humanities and liberal and performing arts. Moreover, Maryland is one of a small group of academic institutions that consistently dominates when judged by the most influential rating groups, including Phi Beta Kappa, the American Council on Education, the National Academy of Science, and the Association of American Universities. All rank Maryland as one of the nation's premier public universities.

The Campus

College Park's cosmopolitan setting attracts students from every state and more than 100 countries. They bring varied ideas, carry contrasting values, follow different lifestyles, and pursue different goals. The campus itself numbers 1,539 acres and contains more than 200 major buildings. Among them: a Computer Science Center that has become a model for universities nationwide, and a campus library system stocked with 3 million volumes and microfilm units. Housing options include traditional and modern dorms and numerous Greek sororities and fraternities. The courtyards and groves that dot the campus are ideal spots for study or relaxation.

The Faculty

The reputation of any major university is based on the caliber of its faculty. College Park faculty are leaders in their fields, as confirmed by the impressive number of Pulitzer Prizes, Guggenheim Fellowships and National Medals of Science awarded to them. Faculty here have pioneered the use of lasers in the operating room, written the definitive biographies of William Shakespeare and black educator Booker T. Washington, and founded a campus chorus that is internationally acclaimed. Undergraduates can work directly with these experts - from their very first term at College Park to their last. The student to teacher ratio is approximately 16 to 1 - as low as that at many small colleges. College Park professors will challenge you to think, to question assumptions and assertions, to explore and to discover.

The Students

Maryland students are a diverse group of motivated men and women. And the time they spend outside the classroom is critical to their success. Campus life at College Park means an award-winning student newspaper and FM radio station, championship athletic teams and intramural sports programs, Phi Beta Kappa and professional societies, and a University Theatre hailed by The Washington Post as one of the best in the metropolitan area.

The Locale

Nine miles from the nation's capital, College Park sits at the doorstep of some of the country's most important landmarks and institutions - from the United States Senate and the Smithsonian to the Library of Congress and the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. College Park is only a short drive from Baltimore - a great historical city and center of commerce, famed for its arts and architecture, new National Aquarium and colorful Inner Harbor. College Park's relationship with these two exceptional cities is not just one of proximity. Undergraduates receive hands-on experience at some of our most prominent agencies and governmental institutions - including NASA, the National Archives, and Congress itself. Because of its unique location College Park is also able to draw upon Nobel Prize winners, cabinet members, and internationally renowned scientists, artists, and writers who come to the campus to share their knowledge.

Cole Field House

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth—from the late 1950s to the 1970s—there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. It stands today as a building that faces cosmetic renewal over the next several years, but Cole's charisma will not be tampered with; there was not a bad seat in the house on Dec. 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in a game against Virginia, and there is not a better place to watch a game today. Only in a building like Cole, where history has been routinely made, can the fan feel the echo of tradition, and experience, even in an empty Cole, the electricity generated by buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there have been refinements. Scoreboards were installed during the off-season that will not only tell the fan what the score is, but also how loud they are cheering. Cole's seating also grew from its original base, and 14,500 fans can now root for the Black and Gold at any game.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 Men's Basketball Final Fours were held here. In 1991, first and second round NCAA games will be hosted. The NCAA Wrestling Championship was held here in 1960, 1972, 1978, and 1987, and is to be held at Cole in 1990.

Cole Field House houses most of the athletic department offices, and yearly hosts thousands who visit just to see where so much hoop history has been made.

Terp Traditions

Testudo, a Diamondback Turtle whose name is derived from the scientific classification for turtle (testudines), is the mascot of the University of Maryland. Testudo's flight to become official mascot was (there is no other description) slow. But once on top, Testudo has reigned with a bronze-like grip, peering at generations of younger Terps crossing in front of, or entering, the Theodore R. McKeldin Library in the heart of the College Park campus. The 500 pound terrapin's days of roving to conquer rival campuses at the behest of the College Park student body are over, his undisturbed regal bearing insured by his being bolted to a concrete throne.

The need for a mascot was essential in the early 1920s in a world littered with Wildcats, Tigers, Devils, Wolves, Bears, and all sorts of traditional names derived from a half-century of college athletics. Maryland was consolidated from different state schools in 1920 to form the base of today's wide-ranging state system and it needed a flag-carrier to do battle with Wahoos, Lions, and Generals.

Dr. H.C. Byrd, the University President in 1922, recommended the Diamondback as mascot in response to the student newspaper's search for an "official" leader. Although his suggestion was, indeed, "official," there were some who resisted, opting for the older and historically entrenched term, Old-Liners. A label derived from the Revolutionary War when Maryland soldiers earned the accolade for bravery and perseverence in the face of British troops, Old-Liners had a more vocal lobby than the speechless turtle.

Testudo

By 1935, however, the Yearbook had changed its name from Reveille to Terrapin by a vote of the student body, and save for some splintered resistance, Testudo's family had won. Newspapers, even then exploring every angle, shortened Terrapin to Terp, but Testudo by any name is still a turtle.

Samuel P. Gorham of Providence, R.I., cast Testudo in bronze at the request of the Class of 1933. He was modeled after a feisty Diamondback that came from Dr. Byrd's hometown of Crisfield. Dr. Byrd's choice of mascot was not intended to reflect the docility of Maryland teams. As a small boy near his home he surely found out what so many others have discovered about Terrapins — they bite.

Colors

The colors of the University of Maryland are those of the state flag—gold, red, black and white.

Maryland's flag bears the arms of the Calvert and Crossland families. Calvert was the family name of the Lords Baltimore who founded Maryland, and their colors of gold and black appear in the first and fourth quarters of the flag. Crossland was the family of the mother of George Calvert, first Lord Baltimore. The red and white Crossland colors, with a Greek cross terminating in the foils, appear in the second and third quarters. The flag was first flown in its present form October 25, 1888, at Gettysburg Battlefield for ceremonies dedicating monuments to Maryland regiments of the Army of the Potomac. It was offically adopted in 1904. Maryland law requires that if any ornament is affixed to the top of a flagstaff carrying the Maryland flag, the ornament must be a gold cross bottony.

Like the long trek of Testudo to become mascot, the trip for these colors to arrive as "official" was marked by factionalism. By the post World War II years, there was disgruntlement from the press and others that Maryland's fooball uniforms were difficult to read, and Old Gold and Black were deemed the colors, even though red had been an official color. By the time of Coach Jim Tatum's matchless era of success, which included a National Championship in 1953, the football team was back in red. Today's Maryland football teams incorporate all the colors of the state flag, although the predominate University of Maryland "fight" color is red.

Head Coach Bob Wade

The map at center court of Cole Field House is symbolic to Maryland Basketball Coach Bob Wade. There, in gold with a white boarder, is the illustration of the State of Maryland.

Wade knows something of this state.

For 11 years as a highly-successful high school coach, his team's racked-up victories from the state's Eastern Shore coastline to the Appalachian Mountains at its western edge. Now, beginning his third year at Maryland, the Terrapin coach's task is to lead the resurgence of this program and to mobilize the knowledgeable basketball fans of this state again behind the Terps.

Indeed, if Wade's first two years are any indication of what's to come, Maryland, rich with traditions of post-season bids, packed houses and All-America performances, soon will return to the college basketball spotlight. Consider, Wade was hired two days before the 1986-87 season began. A young team — young, as in no seniors and only one junior starter — went 9-17 that year, playing 15 games against teams that went to the NCAA Touranment.

The next year, it was Wade's Terrapins who made the trek to the NCAA post-season extravaganza. Following 1988's 18-13 season record, Wade's two-year totals at Maryland read: 27-30 overall, and a-more-competitive-than-the-record-indicates 6-22 in the brutally-tough Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terps were winless in the ACC during Wade's first season, but rebounded last year to finish 6-8 and reach the semifinals of the ACC Tournament.

Wade began his coaching career at Baltimore's Dunbar High School, following the legendary William F. "Sugar" Cain. Early in his career he realized the need for his players to succeed in the classroom as well as on the court. Shortly after taking over at Dunbar, he instituted special study sessions and academic support groups for his student-athletes, changing the focus of the highly-successful ath-ic program to be more in step with the ever-increasing academic demands for college entrance.

Despite the new demands he placed on his team, the school's dominance in Maryland high school basketball continued. In his 11 years, Wade's teams won 272 games and lost only 24, including a four-year streak when the team was 119-1. Four seasons — three straight from 1981-84 — his teams went undefeated.

A list of his Dunbar standouts reads like a who's who of collegiate stars and professional aspirants. He's coached Reggie Williams (of Georgetown and the San Diego Clippers), Tyrone Bogues (of Wake Forest and the Charlotte Hornets), avid Wingate (of Georgetown and the Philadelphia 76ers), and Reggie Lewis (of Northeastern and the Boston Celtics), among others.

Wade's ability to manage the delicate balance between athletic achievement and academic advancement began well before his first coaching assignment. He, himself, was the staunchest of student-athletes — by any definition.

As a collegian at Morgan State, he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in four years, while earning four consecutive varsity letters as a defensive back on the football team. He was a 15th round pick of the Baltimore Colts in the 1967 NFL draft, and played two seasons in the NFL and two in the AFL.

Wade, 44, is married to the former Carolyn Edwards of Baltimore. The couple has two sons, Daryl, 21, and Darion, 12.

The Wade Profile

Full Name: Robert Purnell Wade
Age: 44
Birthdate: Dec. 9, 1944
Birthplace: Baltimore, Maryland
Married: To the former Carolyn Edwards of Baltimore, July 16, 1966
Education: Master's degree equivalent in physical education; Bachelor of Science, Morgan State University, 1967; graduate, Dunbar High School, Baltimore, 1963
Athletic Experience: Professional football, defensive back 1968-71 (with Pittsburgh, 1968 and Washington, 1969 of the NFL, and Denver, 1970-71 of the AFL); college football, defensive back, four-year letterwinner at Morgan State; high school, football and basketball star at Dunbar High
Coaching Experience: College, two-year record at Maryland of 27-30; high school, 11-year record at Dunbar High School of 272-24, won three mythical national titles and nine MSA A Conference titles.

Ron Bradley

Assistant Coach

A former head basketball coach, a long-time Maryland assistant coach and a self-proclaimed "basketball fanatic," Ron Bradley lends a wealth of experience and enthusiasm to the Maryland staff.

Bradley is the senior member of the staff, beginning his eighth year in the program. He joined the Maryland staff in 1981 as a volunteer assistant to Lefty Driesell and in 1984 was promoted to his current full-time position.

A student of the game, Bradley is voracious in his quest to study the latest trends and strategies of the game and compelled to read all books on the sport which cross his desk. It may well be in his genes.

He literally grew up with the game, learning the finer points from his father, Carroll, who later was his coach at Eastern Nazarene. The son learned well. He was a four-time letterman at Eastern Nazarene, and ranked among the top 15 scorers in the NAIA twice. He scored 2,649 career points, good for a 24.8 points per game average and three selections to the Associated Press' and United Press International's honorable mention All-America teams. He was drafted by the ABA's New York Nets.

Bradley graduated from Eastern Nazarene with a Bachelor of Arts in psychology and history and then earned his master's degree in physical education from Bridgewater State College. He currently is pursing his Ph.D. in sports psychology at Maryland.

After a stint of semi-professional basketball in the Boston area, Bradley returned to Eastern Nazarene as head coach (his father has since returned to that position). With Bradley as coach, the Crusaders ran up a 96-51 record and won four NAIA District Championships. His teams won 20 or more games twice and captured the 1979 NAIA Regional title.

At Maryland, Bradley is involved in all aspects of the day to day operation of the team. He assists with court coaching, recruiting, scouting and team administration.

Bradley, 37, is married to the former Denise Smith. The couple has two children: Brad, 10, and Katlin, 4.

Specifics: 37 (2-9-51)

Education: B.A., Pyschology & History, Eastern Nazarene; M.S., Physical Education, Bridgewater State; pursuing Ph.D., Sports Psychology, Maryland

Coaching: Eastern Nazarene, Head Basketball Coach, 1977-81; Maryland, Volunteer Assistant Coach, 1981-83; Maryland, Assistant Basketball Coach, 1983-Present.

Personal: Attended North Quincy High School in North Quincy, Mass. He is married to the former Denise Smith and the couple has two children: Brad, 10, and Katlin, 4. Three of the five head coaches in the history of the Eastern Nazarene program have been members of the Bradley family — Ron enjoyed one stint as head coach, his father, Carroll, currently is in his second go 'round at the school.

Jeff Adkins

Assistant Coach

There may not exist a more rabid University of Maryland fan than Jeff Adkins. Here is a man who has devoted a great portion of his life to this University in a multitude of roles: student-athlete, coach, even sorority-house advisor.

The University and especially its basketball program are the stronger because of Adkins' presence.

Adkins is entering his fourth season on the Terrapins' coaching staff. He first was a graduate assistant coach, then a part-time assistant, and was elevated to full-time assistant this past summer by Head Coach Bob Wade. His accession through the coaching ranks parallels his development and subsequent rise as a player.

Adkins came to Maryland in 1981 with a reputation for heady play in crucial situations. It was a proper moniker, as Adkins developed into one of the steadiest players in Maryland history. He proved himself an above average scorer and rebounder and still is among the career leaders in assists and steals.

He graduated in 1985 with a Bachelor of Science in economics and was drafted by the Chicago Bulls. He returned to Maryland in the summer of 1985 to assume a graduate assistantship and has been an intregal part of the coaching staff ever since.

His duties now run the gamut of coaching responsibilities from court-coaching to recruiting to scouting. He also currently is studying toward his master's degree.

The coach truly is devoted to this institution. Earlier this year, he married the former Kim Elliot, a former Maryland cheerleader and now coach of the pom pom squad. Not a couple to stray far from the University community, the Adkins live on campus, serving as sorority parents for the Delta Phi Epsilon sorority.

Specifics: 25 (5-20-63)

Education: B.A., Economics, University of Maryland, 1985; Pursuing a master's in education and communication.

Coaching: Graduate Assistant Coach, University of Maryland, 1985-86; Part-time Assistant Coach, University of Maryland, 1986-88; Assistant Coach, University of Maryland, 1988-Present.

Personal: Recently married to the former Kim Elliot, a Maryland graduate and former cheerleader. The couple serve as sorority parents for the Delta Phi Epsilon sorority on campus.

Ralph Lee

Part-time Assistant Coach

Ralph Lee, a former standout at Xavier University and a prep star at Baltimore Poly Tech, joined the Maryland coaching staff in June as a part-time assistant coach.

Besides his on-court responsibilities, Lee helps coordinate the team's study hall and community service schedules.

While each coach on the Maryland staff deals with all aspects of the team's game preparation, Lee will join assistant Jeff Adkins in adding practical experience to the Terps' corps of guards. Lee was a three-year starter at point guard for the Musketeers and owns the single season (251) and career (699) records for assists. He finished as the nation's No. 3 assists producer in both is junior and senior seasons.

Prior to his career at Xavier, Lee was an exceptional player at Poly Tech, where he still owns the game, season and career assist records.

Lee graduated in 1986 from Xavier with a degree in business management. Since graduation, he has worked for a Cincinnati insurance firm and has coached high school basketball. In 1986-87, he was assistant varsity coach at Forest Park High School and was head coach of the Forest Park freshman team which produced a 17-1 record.

Specifics: 24 (6-26-64)

Education: B.A. Business Management, Xavier University, 1986

Coaching: Forest Park High School, Assistant Varsity Coach, 1936-87; Head Freshman Team Coach (17-1); Mt. Healthy High School, Assistant Varsity Coach, 1987-88; Head Junior Varsity Coach.

Personal: Attended Baltimore Poly Tech High School. He is engaged to Ms. Jannelle Milton.

Edward E. Lansford

Graduate Assistant Coach

The newest member of the Terrapins' staff is Edward Lansford, who joined the staff in September as a graduate assistant. Lansford will have a myriad of duties in his new post — from court coaching to monitoring student-athletes' study hall sessions to on-campus recruiting.

He seems well suited for the task. Lansford joins the Maryland program after serving as an assistant coach at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, La. for one year. At Northwestern, Lansford was involved with every phase of the Demon's program, which finished the year 16-12.

Lansford is no stranger to the Baltimore-D.C. area. He coached in the I-270 Basketball League. That summer program is a selective try-out league for high school players and annually draws from the best prep talent in the area. He also worked for two years at a District fitness center.

A graduate of William & Mary, Lansford earned a Bachelor of Arts in economics in 1982. He also was a member of the varsity rifle team, the rugby team and the football team. He later earned his master's degree in administration and supervision from Northwestern State and currently is finishing up another master's in exercise physiology from Maryland.

Specifics: 28 (5-26-60)

Education: B.A., Economics, William & Mary, 1982; M.A., Administration & Supervision, Northwestern State, 1988

Coaching: Northwestern State (La.), Assistant Basketball Coach, 1987-88; I-270 Basketball League, Head Coach, 1986-87

Personal: He is single.

Woodrow "Woody" Williams

Administrative Assistant

Woody Williams, entering his second year as administrative assistant to Head Coach Bob Wade, has a varied list of responsibilities. He orchestrates the team travel for the Terrapins and administers the set up of Cole Field House for both men's and women's home games.

Williams and Wade were classmates at Morgan State University and have developed a fast, trusting friendship, which survived their days as opposing coaches in the Baltimore prep ranks.

Wade was the highly-successful coach at Baltimore Dunbar High School while Williams coached at equally-successful Lake Clifton Senior High. The two shared their coaching philosophies frequently as part of all-star team staffs. Williams also served as Lake Clifton's athletics director and head of the physical education department.

Williams was a collegiate swimmer at Morgan State. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1960 and earned his master's in phys ed in 1964.

Williams married the former Beverly Brown in 1966. The couple has a daughter, Lanaya, 12.

Specifics: 46 (6-20-42)
Education: B.S., Physical Education, Morgan State, 1960; M.S., Physical Education, Morgan State, 1964
Coaching: Edmondston High School, Assistant Basketball and Football Coach, 1965-70; Lake Clifton Senior High School, Head Basketball Coach, 1970-87
Administration: Athletics Director and Physical Education Department Head, Lake Clifton Senior High School; Administrative Assistant to the Head Basketball Coach, University of Maryland, 1987-Present.
Personal: A native of Philadelphia. Attended Glassboro (NJ) High School. He and his wife, Beverly, have a daughter, Lanaya, 12.

Bill Saylor

Associate Trainer

Providing the day-to-day injury-prevention care to the Maryland basketball team is associate trainer Bill Saylor, who is starting his second year as chief trainer for the team.

One of four full-time assistants to Head Trainer J.J. Bush, Saylor works with most of Maryland's athletic teams, and supervises the training of the men's basketball team, specifically.

Saylor coordinates and supervises the team's off-season conditioning regimen. He travels with the team and supervises all rehabilitative efforts in the advent of an injury.

As a former varsity athlete in football and wrestling, Saylor has first hand knowledge of the importance of preventative medial care in the success of an athletes' career. Saylor was a letter-earning wrestler for three years and a football safety for one year at Delaware. He graduated from Delaware in 1980 with a Bachelor of Science in physical education. He earned his master's degree in phyiscal education from Virginia in 1983.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Saylor served as a trainer in the Sports Medicine Department of the U.S. Naval Academy for three years. He also worked on a part time basis as a trainer with the Washington Redskins for three years.

Saylor, 36, is married to the former Patricia Bird.

Specifics: 36 (9-22-52)

Education: B.S. Physical Education, Delaware, 1980; M.S. Physical Education, Virginia, 1983

Training: U.S. Naval Academy, Assistant Trainer, 1983-86; Washington Redskins, Part-time Trainer, 1985-87; University of Maryland, Associate Trainer, 1987-Present.

Personal: Attended Concord High School in Wilmington, Delaware. He is married to the former Patricia Bird.

Dr. Sanford Lavine

Team Physician

Dr. Lavine's role at Maryland has been to make the Terrapins go, whether as an undergraduate standout in football, or as the team physician for almost three decades.

A native of Pittsburgh where he attended Schenley High School, Dr. Lavine matriculated at Maryland to prepare for his medical career, and played initially for the immortal Clark Shaughnesy, one of football's great innovators. By the time of his 1950 graduation, he had led Maryland under Head Coach Jim Tatum to a 9-1 record and a 20-7 win over Missouri in the Gator Bowl as the team's quarterback. After graduating from the University's Medical School, he interned in hospitals in Philadelphia and Cleveland, served two years in the Air Force, and then began his orthopedic medical practice and work with Maryland's athletic teams.

Dr. Lavine attends all football games, home basketball games and some road games, and he is on call at all times for the athletes on the University's 23 sports teams. His professional reputation is national in scope, and many prominent athletes have sought his treatment. He was team physician for the Washington Redskins (1975-1985), and was there for two Super Bowls. He was the team physician for the Washington Bullets when they won the NBA Championship. He is the team physician for the Washington Diplomats soccer team. He presentley works at Sibley Hospital in Washington, D.C.

Frank Costello

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Frank Costello is entering his eighth year as head strength and conditioning coach here at the University of Maryland, having assumed the position in 1981.

Costello is no stranger to the University. He served as Head Track and Field Coach for Maryland from 1974-81 before moving on to his current position. Prior to 1974, he was an assistant track coach from 1969-74. As head mentor, Costello's teams won an ACC Championship and Indoor and Outdoor IC4A Championships. He has worked with a number of world class athletes, including hurdler and world record holder, Renaldo Nehemiah. In 1976, his long jumpers were one, two, and three in the IC4A's.

As New Jersey state high jump champion, Costello came to Maryland and made immediate contributions to the program. He was undefeated in the ACC, IC4A, and NCAA competition in 1965, winning both indoor and outdoor NCAA titles. His list of accomplishments includes titles in the Penn Relays, Milrose Games, Eastern European Championships, Southern Hemisphere Games and the French National Championships. In 1966, he was the third-ranked high jumper in the world.

In addition to coaching, Costello has been the author of numerous articles on track and field, including six articles published for Scholastic Magazine, four in the Athletic Journal, and two more in Track Technique Magazine.

Costello and his wife, Sherry, reside in Bowie, Md.

DAVE DICKERSON

#23
Senior, Forward
6-6, 200
Olar, South Carolina

ON DICKERSON
Senior co-captain...one of the most experienced Terps, given he started as a sophomore and was one of the first players off the bench last season...has shuffled between both forward positions in his career, but is best suited for the small forward, where his outside shot and exceptional quickness can best be utilized...still his excellent jumping abilities and strong post-up moves make him a force inside as well.

AS A JUNIOR
Started the first four games of the season and then became the valuable sixth man for the Terps ...averaged 4.5 points and 2.1 rebounds per game...scored in double figures three times, with a season-high 13 points coming against South Carolina...grabbed a season-high seven boards in the second game of the year against Mississippi...had one of his best overall games at home against Wake Forest...came off the bench in that game to score 11 points and dish for four assists, leading Maryland to its first Atlantic Coast Conference win under Head Coach Bob Wade...was the team's most accurate three-point shooter, hitting 12 of 22 attempts for 55 percent.

AS A SOPHOMORE
One of five Terps to start all 26 games...had the second-best rebounding total on the team with 145 boards for a 5.6 average...scored 8.3 points per game, fourth best on the team ... scored a career-high 18 points at Duke, near-flawlessly — eight of nine from the floor and two for two from the line...11 times he scored in double figures...had one of his best games ever against Maryland-Eastern Shore, scoring 13 points, dishing for seven assists, grabbing six boards and blocking a shot.

AS A FRESHMAN
Saw limited duty, playing in 15 games...averaged 2.1 points and 1.5 rebounds a game...had one of his best days of the season in front of family and friends, scoring a season-high nine points, plus totaling four assists, three rebounds and a block against Clemson in South Carolina.

HIGH SCHOOL
Olar High School...first team all-state selection...Most Valuable Player in South Carolina's annual North-South All-Star Game... averaged 20 points and 12 rebounds a game as a senior...led Olar to the 5A Conference Championship as a junior and senior, garnering conference MVP honors in the process...also played quarterback and safety for the football team.

PERSONAL
Born March 29, 1967 in Denmark, South Carolina... majoring in government and politics.

JOHN JOHNSON

#21
Senior, Forward
6-4, 170
Knoxville, Tennessee

ON JOHNSON — Senior co-captain...exceptionally quick guard...possibly the best penetrator on the team, but will have to show an effective outside shot this year as well...his quickness also makes him a tremendous defensive threat...handles the ball well.

AS A JUNIOR
A valuable sub off the bench, playing in 23 ballgames... averaged 2.2 points a game and nailed a season-high 11 points at Wake Forest...played a season-high 22 minutes against Mount St. Mary's...shot a respectable 31 percent from three-point range, a statistic not lost on the Maryland coaching staff.

AS A SOPHOMORE
Started all 26 games at off guard — one of the five Terps to get the starting nod in each game...averaged 10.9 points a game — third best on the team...got off to a quick start, scoring a career-high 25 points and dishing for six assists in the second game of the season against Fairleigh Dickinson...for the season, he scored in double figures 14 times...dished off for 10 assists against Winthrop and had five or more assists in eight other games...shot 79.6 percent from the free throw line to rank No. 8 in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

AS A FRESHMAN
Received considerable playing time his first year, more, in fact, than any other freshman on the team...averaged 5.8 points a game...scored in double figures in nine games, with a season-high 18 points coming against Johnny Dawkins and NCAA finalist Duke...hit game-winning shot to beat Stanford in double overtime in the Hawaii-Pacific Tournament, then had 16 points the next day to lead the team over Hawaii-Pacific for the championship.

HIGH SCHOOL
Bearden High School...the 1985 Tennessee High School Player of the Year...set school's career scoring record with 2,327 points ...three times scored 40 or more points in a game...named Tennessee Mr. Basketball and was a honorable mention All-America as a senior...a two-time first team all-state selection and three-time all-district pick...two-time team captain.

PERSONAL
Born March 11, 1967 in Chattanooga, Tennessee...enjoys listening to music...majoring in criminology.

MITCH KASOFF

#5
Junior, Guard
6-1, 175
Baltimore, Maryland

ON KASOFF — A walk-on candidate for two seasons whose hard play and dedication earned him a scholarship this past June...owns an accurate outside jump shot and is a heady playmaker...will probably see the vast majority of his playing time at off guard, as he returns as one of the best long-range shooting threats on the team ... came back to school this fall in the best shape of his career and worked hard during the team's fall conditioning program.

AS A SOPHOMORE
Played in six ballgames and averaged just under a point a game...was instrumental on Maryland's scout team...scored a season-high two points against East Carolina and Arkansas...action was limited late in the year when he suffered a broken hand.

AS A FRESHMAN
Earned walk-on status, fulfilling his dream of playing for the Terps...played in seven games, averaging 1.6 points an outing... scored a career high seven points in the final home game of the season against Maryland-Eastern Shore...was three for five in that game, including a three-point goal.

HIGH SCHOOL
Pikesville High School...one of the top scorers in the history of Baltimore prep hoops...led the state in scoring as a junior, averaging 28.7 a game...averaged an impressive 24 points a game as a senior, when defenses were keyed to stop him...selected all-metro by the Baltimore Sun...he is the all-time leading scorer in PHS history with 1,614 career points...his best game was a 46-point effort against Owing Mills ...was a first team All-America pick by the New York Jewish Post & Opinion...the quintessential student-athlete, winning both the school's Scholar-Athlete Award and Athlete of the Year trophy as a senior.

PERSONAL
Born January 9, 1968 in Baltimore...enjoys water skiing, art and thoroughbred racing...most of the high school records he broke were formerly his brother, Eddie's, who later went on to play football and basketball at Johns Hopkins...majoring in consumer economics.

CEDRIC LEWIS

Sophomore, Forward
6-9, 200
Temple Hills, Maryland

ON LEWIS — Excellent defensive player, quite possibly the best post defender on the team ...has the potential to be among the best shot blockers in the nation ... can shift between the power forward and center, but is most comfortable playing with his back to the basket...at 6-9, is one of the tallest Terps and will have to be a factor on the boards and in the paint for Maryland to be successful.

AS A FRESHMAN
Opened the season in a big way, garnering 33 minutes in the season opener against Loyola...made the most of those minutes, scoring 10 points, grabbing four rebounds and blocking three shots against the Greyhounds...averaged 2.0 points, 2.0 rebounds and just under two blocks a game in the team's first seven contests, starting two of those seven...then contracted a severe case of mononucleosis and missed the rest of the season...was unable to even return to practice during the year, but was denied an appeal for a medical redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL
John Carroll High School...averaged 27 points and nine rebounds as a senior...had game highs that season of 25 points, 15 boards and 15 blocked shots...was the national high school leader in blocks.

PERSONAL
Born September 24, 1969 in Washington D.C...brother, Derrick, played for Maryland from 1984-88 and is among the school's career leaders in scoring and rebounding and was drafted this past year by the Chicago Bulls in the third round...majoring in undergraduate studies.

TONY MASSENBURG

Junior, Center
6-9, 230
Sussex, Virginia

ON MASSENBURG — In Al McGuirese, he's Maryland's "Aircraft Carrier" — its potentially dominating force in the middle...is the Terps' most experienced returning low post player and the team's top returning scorer...started 16 games a year ago and is the projected starter at center this season...in a league complete with exceptional centers, he potentially could vie for post-season honors...easily one of the strongest players on the team, still boasts impressive mobility and quickness...an excellent jumper who plays taller than his 6-9 frame...excellent shooter who boasts a career percentage of .510 from the field-...definitely will be counted on to add stability and leadership to the squad — both on and off the floor.

AS A SOPHOMORE
Sat out the fall semester — seven games — last year, then returned to the court with a vengeance...scored a career-high 25 points (on eight of 11 field goal shooting), grabbed five rebounds and blocked four shots in his first game back against South Carolina...averaged 10.1 points per game — one of five Maryland players to average in double figures — and grabbed 5.3 boards an outing...both of those averages are tops among returning players...numbers dropped off slightly in ACC action, nevertheless at seasons end was generally regarded as one of the conference's comers...twice he grabbed a career high 11 rebounds and nabbed 10 on one other occassion...played in 23 games, starting 13 and averaging 27 minutes a game...scored in double figures 15 times and led the team in scoring against South Carolina (25) and North Carolina State (16)...led the team in rebounding eight times...grabbed an offensive rebound and scored the ensuing layup with nine seconds to go against Clemson to put Maryland ahead for good.

AS A FRESHMAN
Sat out of action during the 1986-87 campaign, so his freshman season was 1985-86...was only the third player ever to start at center as a freshman under Coach Lefty Driesell...played in 29 games, starting eight...had season-highs of 14 points against Towson State and nine rebounds against Randolph-Macon.

HIGH SCHOOL
Sussex Central High School...averaged 17.5 points, 12 rebounds and five blocks per game as a senior, riding those numbers to All-America mention by Associated Press, USA Today and the Richmond Times-Dispatch...was all-state as a junior and senior and twice was named all-district and all-region...also lettered in track as a hurdler and high jumper and in football as a tight end and safety.

PERSONAL
Born July 31, 1967 in Virginia ...enjoys listening to music and mixing records...majoring in family studies.

GREG NARED

#22
Senior, Guard
6-4, 190
Wilmington, Ohio

ON NARED — Looks to be the likely candidate to inherit Maryland's point guard position...has been a great role player for three years, contributing minutes at both the point and off guard positions...solid, steady player who gets the ball where it needs to be without flash...excels at perimeter defense...possesses good fundamental skills...excellent team leader.

AS A JUNIOR
Played in 14 games, including his first career start which came against Georgia Tech (2/17)...had best game of the season against Maryland-Eastern Shore, scoring five points, swiping three steals and grabbing a pair of rebounds...though he didn't attempt enough to qualify for conference rankings, he led the team in free throw percentage, hitting seven of eight shots for 87.5 percent accuracy.

AS A SOPHOMORE
Set his career high of nine points against James Madison in a relatively unique way, going nine of 10 from the free throw line...had five boards against Wake Forest for his career best in that category...shot 50 percent from three point (three of six) and will no doubt be one of Maryland's long-range threats this year...dished off for four assists against both Clemson and Georgia Tech.

AS A FRESHMAN
Played sparingly, seeing action in seven games...scored six points and grabbed five boards in 46 total minutes.

HIGH SCHOOL
Wilmington High School...a two-sport star who was all-state as a senior in both football and basketball...turned down a scholarship offer to play quarterback at Ohio State to accept his hoops scholarship at Maryland...the school's all-time assist leader, setting the career mark as a sophomore...entered his senior year listed on numerous preseason All-America teams for both football and basketball...followed that up with mention on many of those same teams at season's end...captain of the South Team in the annual North-South All-Star Game.

PERSONAL
Born May 7, 1966 in Dayton, Ohio...enjoys working with children...majoring in speech communication.

JESSE MARTIN

#14
Freshman, Guard
6-4, 190
Roxbury, Massachusetts

ON MARTIN — Multi-talented swingman who played inside during his prep career, but is projected as a guard at Maryland ... an exceptional natural athlete...runs the floor well, great leaper for his size...rated as the sixth-best prospect considering an Eastern school by Eastern Basketball in 1988...has good range on his jump shot and is exceptionally quick and versatile...he is most often compared to former Maryland standout Keith Gatlin.
HIGH SCHOOL — English High School...averaged 19 points, 13 rebounds and four assists per game last year for 18-4 English, which won the City Championship...didn't receive the notoriety he might have because of the system English ran, a motion offense which saw all five starters average in double figures...nevertheless, as a senior he earned all-city, all-state and All-America honors...three sport star for English, also lettering in football, and track...was an all-city wide receiver and a 400-meters runner...also served as President of the student body.
PERSONAL — Born November 22, 1968 in Boston...a pre-business major.

JERROD MUSTAF

#32
Freshman, Forward-Center
6-10, 225
Greenbelt, Maryland

ON MUSTAF — One of the most sought-after recruits in the nation...a consensus prep All-America, gaining selection to the McDonald's, Parade and Converse teams, among others ... named Metropolitan Player of the Year by the Washington Post...at 6-10, has the size to play inside, but has impressive ball handling and outside shooting skills...is a player who can be expected to contribute immediately.
HIGH SCHOOL — DeMatha High School...averaged 22 points, 15 rebounds, and four blocks a game, leading renowned DeMatha High School to a 30-3 and the Washington city title ... also had an excellent junior season, averaging 16 points, 14 boards and four blocks per game ... DeMatha was ranked No. 1 in the state each of the past three years ... played varsity ball all four years.
PERSONAL — Born October 28, 1969 in Whiteville, N.C...enjoys reading, especially about black history and current events ... member of the regular season champion team in the D.C. Kenner League, joining fellow Terps Teyon McCoy and Walt Williams on that squad ... majoring in pre-business.

WALT WILLIAMS

#42
Freshman, Forward
6-8, 190
Temple Hills, Maryland

ON WILLIAMS — A relative unknown, who could be the suprise signee in the Atlantic Coast Conference...great all-around player who could see action at either forward position or the off guard...beat out fellow Maryland signee Jerrod Mustaf for Metropolitan Player of the Year recognition by the Washington Times and the Prince George's (County) Journal...earned recognition on various prep All-America squads, including the prestigious McDonald's team.
HIGH SCHOOL — Crossland High School...averaged 22 points, 10 rebounds, five assists, five blocks and four steals per game for CHS last year...averaged 14 points and 10 boards a game as a junior...led team to a 25-1 record last season — the loss coming in the state tournament championship game...in fact, led high school team to three straight tournament championship game appearances...team won the state title in 1986 and was runner-up again in 1987...in Williams' three years of varsity ball, Crossland had a combined record of 71-7.
PERSONAL — Born on April 16, 1970 in Washington D.C...majoring in pre-businesss.

RESIDENT TERP HISTORIAN

From Maine to Florida. From Florida to Maine. If you were going South to vacation or for other reasons during the winter months of December, January and February from 1931 to 1955, you had to pass by the home of the University of Maryland basketball team.

Ritchie Coliseum was opened in 1931 and located smack alongside of US Route #1. It so happened that US #1 was the only direct highway that would take you North and South in those years. US #1 was just your then typical skinny two-lane highway.

Then 24 years later, the 5000 seat Ritchie Coliseum gave way to the now William P. Cole Student Activities Building and the new home of Terrapin basketball.

Prior to the opening of Ritchie Coliseum, Terrapin basketball was played in Annapolis Hall, then Ritchie Gymnasium. In the move to the Coliseum, the Terps first permanent home, they won the first game played there with a 41-22 decision over cross-town rival George Washington, January 12, 1924. Old Ritchie, Annapolis Hall, was built in 1923.

The game made its first rounds around the College Park campus in 1905. But it wasn't until 1912 when the Maryland Agriculture College (MAC) Athletic Council hired Curley Byrd, future President of the University. Byrd hired Burton Shipley to coach the team which he captained during the 1910-11 season. In 1921, the Southern Conference was formed. A year earlier, the MAC was merged with the professional complex in Baltimore under a single board of regents and it was then in 1923 the beginning of the University of Maryland as it is known today.

Gene Shue was the first great scorer in Maryland history, scoring 1,397 career points — a record that stood for 20 years.

Shipley would coach the Terps until 1947, leading them to nine winning seasons during the 30's before World War II curtailed the program. The highlight of Shipley's career was the 1931 season when the Terps won the Southern Conference tournament.

Shipley had just one winning season during the 40's (14-10 in 1946-47) before turning the program over to Alfred L. "Flucie" Stewart who coached the Terps for only three seasons.

Byrd then turned to Oklahoma A&M's successful head coach Henry "Hank" Iba for his choice to turn the program around. As Iba's standout All-American and defensive star, Herman A. "Bud" Millikan was hired in May, 1950. Millikan inherited a team that had gone 7-18 in the 1949-50 season and led it to a 16-11 mark. Two more winning seasons followed and in 1953, Maryland became a charter member of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Led by guard Gene Shue, Millikan's Terps went 23-7 in the first ACC season and achieved its first-ever national ranking, 20th. Shue became the Terps' second All-American. Louis "Bosey" Berger was the first ever in 1932. Shue scored 1,397 points, a school record, that stood for 20 years until Tom McMillen broke it, 1972-74. After a 10-year NBA career that included two All-Pro selections, Shue began his NBA coaching career in Baltimore. From there, he had successful efforts at Philadelphia, San Diego, Washington, and is presently the head coach of the Los Angeles Clippers. Shue is the only Maryland player to be a head coach in the NBA.

The Terrapins achieved their ultimate goal in the 1957-58 season when they captured the school's first ACC Tournament Championship as they scored wins over Virginia, Duke and North Carolina for the title. Advancing to their first NCAA tournament, the Terps defeated Boston College in the first round of the East Regional, then lost to powerful Temple in the semifinals. They finished the season, 22-7, and gained a #6 ranking in the final national poll.

An inconsistent stretch ensued which brought about the unexpected resignation of Millikan. Frank Fellows, who played for Millikan his first season as

John Lucas played at such a high level during his Maryland career that opponents just looked on in awe. Lucas was a two-time All-American and a three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference pick.

Len Bias is the Terp's only two-time ACC Player of the Year. He led the conference in scoring as a junior and senior.

coach, succeeded him and lasted two years.

Tired of and disgraced by the small crowds (2 and 3,000) in spacious Cole Field House, second largest arena on the East Coast, athletics director Jim Kehoe hired Charles G. "Lefty" Driesell to give the program an intense transfusion. "Lefty", as he was and has been affectionately known around the world committed to take the challenge in the spring of 1969. The outspoken and flamboyant Driesell had led Davidson College to six 20-victory seasons and four Top 10 rankings.

An unparalleled brand of basketball and enthusiasm swarmed Terrapin basketball as the near empty Cole became a mad-house of screaming bedlam and jammed with 14,500 fans. Chair seats had to be put on the floor; fire marshalls were regular customers to supervise the overflow mania; and the band playing and the choruses of "Hail to the Chief" greeted "Lefty" as he emerged from the Cole tunnel and onto the floor raising his left arm heavenward to accept the thundering ovation.

In 1972, going 27-5, a pair of his stars and future All-Americans Tom McMillen and Len Elmore led the Terps to the National Invitational title. This win ignited the following 15-years of feverish Terrapin basketball and national prominence. He compiled 321 wins in his 17 years (23.0 victories per season). He had 10 seasons of at least 20 victories and advanced to 8 NCAA appearances, getting to the Final 8 in 1973 and 1975. A personal highlight for Driesell was the Terps' winning the ACC Championship in 1984, his first and only ACC crown. They advanced to the ACC finals, six times. The Terps finished in the Associated Press Top 20 nine times during his 17-year era.

Driesell resigned as the Terrapins' head basketball coach in September, 1986.

On October 30, 1986, after 11 years and 272 victories at Baltimore's Dunbar High School, a phenomenal winning percentage of 91.9%, Bob Wade was hired to restore the Maryland basketball program. His appointment came just two days before the start of a delayed season.

The first season, 1986-87, ended with a 9-17 record. The team was competitive all season, losing some close games. Wade's first team that he inherited had no seniors, a junior playing out of position, three sophomores who saw limited action the previous season, and seven new players.

Curley Byrd, here as University President, gave flight to the school's burgeoning basketball program.

Wade turned the tide last season, 1987-88, finishing with a winning ledger, 18-13. He went from 0-14 in the ACC to 6-8. The Terps won the opening game of the ACC Tournament, then went on to the NCAA Southeast Regionals, winning over Cal-Santa Babara before dropping a close 90-81 game to Kentucky.

Tom McMillen launched enough feathery, left-handed jumpers to score 1,807 career points and earn All-America honors in 1974.

LOUIS "BOSEY" BERGER

6-2, Forward
Played: 1929-32
All-American: 1931 & 1932

ON BERGER — Considered one of the greatest athletes in the history of Maryland athletics ... a two-time All-America selection — an amazing feat, considering Maryland was an agricultural school at the time and not thought of among the athletics giants ... considered one of the best all-around players of his time ... led Maryland to the 1931 Southern Conference Championship, averaging a Conference-high 19.1 points per game over the nine-game conference season ... also played baseball, and signed a contract with the Cleveland Indians upon graduation ... played in the major leagues for six years, with Cleveland, Chicago and Boston ... left baseball with a .236 lifetime average.

LEN BIAS

6-8, Forward
Landover, Maryland
Played: 1982-86
All-American: 1986

ON BIAS — Unanimous choice on almost every All-America squad following his senior season ... had been a third team selection in 1985 ... only Terrapin ever to be named ACC Player of the Year twice (in 1985 and 1986) ... the Terrapins all-time leading scorer with 2,149 career points ... he owns the school's top two single season scoring marks — his 743-point total in 1985-86 is No. 1 all time and his 701-point total in 1984-85 is No. 2 ... he was the first player since N.C. State's Kenny Carr in the early 1970's to lead the ACC in scoring two straight years ... his best single game scoring performance, 41 points at Duke, ranks as the second-best single game mark in school history and the top performance by a Terp in a road game ... he is No. 8 on the Maryland career rebounding list with 745 total boards ... he also is No. 3 on the school's career block shot list ... he was No. 2 pick overall in the 1986 National Basketball Association college draft, taken by the Boston Celtics.

LEN ELMORE

6-9, Center
Springfield Gardens, New York
Played: 1971-74
All-American: 1974

ON ELMORE — The best rebounder in Maryland history and one of the nation's best ever ... rebounding prowess earned him a spot on most 1974 All-America squads along with offensive-minded teammates Tom McMillen and John Lucas ... is the only player in Maryland history with more than 1,000 career rebounds (1,053) ... his 1973-74 season average of 14.7 boards a game is the school's single-season record ... his career rebounding average of 12.2 a game also is the Maryland record in that category ... he owns six of the top 10 single game rebounding marks in school history and two of the top three season totals ... his 412 rebounds in the 1973-74 season is the school record ... was a three-time All-ACC performer and the team's Most Valuable Player in 1972-73 and its Outstanding Senior in 1973-74 ... was drafted in the first round of the 1974 NBA college draft by the Washington Bullets, but chose to sign with the Indiana Pacers of the American Basketball Association ... spent 10 seasons in the ABA and NBA with the Pacers, Milwaukee Bucks, New Jersey Nets and New York Knickerbockers ... upon leaving professional basketball, he enrolled in Harvard Law School and graduated in 1987 ... he is the first former professional player to graduate from the prestigious law school. He is now Assistant District Attorney of New York City.

ALBERT KING

6-7, Forward
Brooklyn, New York
Played: 1977-81
All-American: 1981

ON KING — One of the most prolific scorers in school history, King is one of only a handful of Maryland players to average in double figures in each of his four seasons ... ranks as the No. 2 all-time Maryland scorer with 2,058 points, only 88 points behind fellow All-American Len Bias on the school's charts ... his career scoring average of 17.4 points per game is the fifth best in school history ... his 38 points in an ACC Tournament game against Clemson is the fourth best individual game performance on the Maryland books ... shared the 1980-81 team Most Valuable Player Award with Buck Williams after winning the award outright in 1979-80 ... was the ACC Player of the Year in 1979-80 and a first team All-ACC pick again in 1980-81 ... came to Maryland generally regarded as the nation's top high school recruit, having averaged 38.6 points and 22 rebounds a game as a prep senior ... certainly lived up to that billing at Maryland and went on to star in the NBA ... picked in the first round — 12th selection overall — by the New Jersey Nets in the 1981 NBA college draft ... he currently is on the roster of the Philadelphia 76ers ... his older brother, Bernard, also is a NBA star and former league scoring champion and plays with the Washington Bullets.

JOHN LUCAS

6-4, Guard
Durham, North Carolina
Played: 1972-76
All-American: 1975 & 1976

ON LUCAS — Generally regarded as the greatest guard in the history of the Terrapins program ... a two-time All-America selection and three-time All-ACC first team performer — the only Maryland player ever to earn that conference distinction ... is the No. 3 scorer in Maryland history with 2,015 points ... his 564 points in the 1973-74 season is the ninth-best single season output in school history ... he is No. 2 on the school's career assists list ... in the years when Lucas manned the point guard position, the Terrapins enjoyed their best seasons in terms of national finishes ... the Terps finished No. 8 (1973), No. 4 (1974) and No. 5 (1975) in the final Associated Press polls in those three seasons with Lucas at the helm ... was also a collegiate star in tennis, a sport in which he was a two-time ACC singles champion and once earned that title in doubles ... was the No. 1 pick in the 1976 NBA college draft, taken by the Houston Rockets ... currently is on the roster of the Seattle Super Sonics.

TOM McMILLEN

6-11, Forward
Mansfield, Pennsylvania
Played: 1971-74
All-America: 1974
Academic All-American: 1972, 1973, & 1974

ON McMILLEN — The quintessential team leader — both on and off the court ... averaged 20.5 points and 9.8 rebounds during his three-year career, while setting an example off the court by being selected all three years to the prestigious Academic All-America team ... one of only three players to average more than 20 points per game in successive seasons and the only player in school history with a career scoring average above 20 points per game ... he owns two of the top seven single season scoring marks and four times in his career scored more than 30 points in a ballgame ... is the No. 5 career scorer in school history and the top scorer among players who were only eligible for three years (freshmen were not eligible for the varsity during McMillen's career) ... led Maryland to the 1972 National Inviational Tournament Championship, earning Most Valuable Player of the tournament ... went on to play for the United States in the 1972 Olympic Games, where the USA earned the silver medal in its controversial game with the Soviets ... played in the NBA for 11 seasons with Buffalo, Atlanta, New York and Washington, but put is professional career on a one-year hold in order to fulfill his Rhodes Scholarship obligation by studying for a year at Oxford ... was elected in 1986 to the U.S. Congress from Maryland's 4th District.

GENE SHUE

6-2, Forward
Baltimore, Maryland
Played: 1951-54
All-American: 1954

ON SHUE — Was the Terp's first high-profile basketball star ... earned Converse and Helms Foundation All-America honors as a senior, when he averaged 21.8 points a game ... owns the third best single game scoring total in school history, hitting for 40 points against Wake Forest in the 1959 Southern Conference Tournament ... was selected as the Most Valuable Player of the tournament ... was the school record holder in career scoring until 1974 when fellow All-American Tom McMillen assumed that role ... still holds the No. 9 slot on the team's career list ... enjoys a successful career as a head coach in the NBA with Los Angeles Clippers and has been previously the head coach of the Washington Bullets and Philadelphia 76ers.

CHARLES "BUCK" WILLIAMS

6-8, Center/Forward
Rocky Mount, North Carolina
Played: 1978-81
All-American: 1981

ON WILLIAMS — An outstanding scorer and extraordinary rebounder, Williams earned All-America honors after a junior season — his last in college ball — in which he averaged 15.6 points and 11.7 rebounds a game ... he is the No. 3 rebounder in Maryland history with 928 career boards, third only to fellow All-American Len Elmore and recent Terp star Derrick Lewis ... his career average of 10.9 rebounds per game is the second best average in school history ... he was an equally adept shooter, averaging in double figures each of his three seasons and registering the school's best-ever field goal percentage ... his 61.5 percent prowess from the field is the school career record ... led the ACC in rebounding as a freshman in 1978-79, was third in 1979-80 and was second in 1980-81 ... was a member of the 1980 United States Olympic Team that did not compete in the Moscow Games ... applied for hardship placement in the NBA college draft and was selected as the No. 3 player overall by the New Jersey Nets ... currently is entering his seventh year with the team.

Maryland Basketball Olympians

The ultimate individual reward in amateur athletics is to represent his or her country in international competition. And with the right timing, talent and dedication, international competition can mean participation in an Olympiad. Three Maryland basketball players have been fortunate enough to represent the United States at such a level, allowing Maryland Basketball to gain representation in three of the last four Olympiads.

Tom McMillen—Maryland's No. 5 career scorer and cornerstone to the highly successful Terp teams from 1973-75, McMillen represented the U.S. in 1972, when Coach Henry Iba's team earned a Silver Medal. An Oxford Scholar who spent 10 seasons in the NBA, McMillen was elected Congressman of Maryland's 4th District in 1986.

Steve Sheppard—Known as the "Bear" to Maryland fans for his ferocious play on three nationally ranked teams during the mid-70's, Sheppard played for North Carolina coach Dean Smith's gold-medal winning 1976 Olympic squad. Sheppard helped the United States to a clean sweep of competition in the Montreal Games, and later played for the Chicago Bulls in the NBA.

Buck Williams— Marylamd's No. 3 career rebounder,Williams was a member of the 1980 Olympic Team. That squad, along with all other U.S. teams did not participate in that summer's Moscow Olympics, but won four of six games against various NBA All-Star teams and defeated the 1976 gold-medal winning American team. Williams is a perennial All-Star with the New Jersey Nets of the NBA and was voted the league's Rookie of the year after the 1981-82 season.

Buck Williams was never able to demonstrate to an Olympic audience the power and abandon he brought to the college game. Williams and his 1980 Olympic teammates did not compete in the Games because of the United States' boycott.

Long before they ever matched-up as pros, greats Len Elmore and Bill Walton squared-off as collegians. In a game considered one of the best regular-season matchs of all time, Walton's Bruins edged Elmore's Terps, 65-64 during the 1973-74 season. The game, though, gave Maryland a national following. As Curry Kirkpatrick wrote in his Sports Illustrated article, "(The Terps) earned the right to be saluted on their merits, their talent and especially on the marvelous play of their senior center, Len Elmore ..."

Year in and year out the Atlantic Coast Conference is picked among the best, if not the best, conferences in the country. The ACC certainly got its due in 1980 when Sports Illustrated put two conference players — Maryland's Albert King being one — on the cover of its College Basketball Issue. Eight years later, the ACC still is the best hoops conference, with two of its teams — Duke and North Carolina — ranked in everyone's preseason top five.

The Terps are no strangers to the NCAA Tournament. Albert King had the hot hand for Maryland during the 1980 Tournament, in which Maryland advanced to the second round. Most recently, the Terps were invited to the 1988 NCAA Tournament, where they defeated California-Santa Barbara in the first round before losing a close game to Kentucky. Overall, Maryland has made nine Tournament appearances.

Brad Davis, left, and Buck Williams used differing styles to get into Maryland's record books. Davis was the true point guard, who scraped for every loose ball and led the team in assists three straight years. Williams, on the other hand, played above the rim, snatching rebounds at record pace and slamming dunks with enough regularity to lead the team in field goal percentage twice.

The University of Maryland's commitment to academic support and graduation of the student-athlete is unparalleled in collegiate athletics. This commitment is represented by the recent formation of the Academic Support Unit.

Directed by Dr. Gerald Gurney, the Academic Support Unit is an intensive program of assessment, skill development and counseling that is offered to every University of Maryland student-athlete. The Academic Support Unit serves the student-athlete with individualized study and tutorial services, career development programs, study skills and both academic and psychological counseling. The Unit takes a strong, no-nonsense approach to academic development, which directly reflects the personal commitment and combined experience of its staff.

Dr. Gurney joined the Maryland staff in 1987, after tenures at Southern Methodist University and Iowa State, institutions which under Gurney's direction were lauded for their nationally-recognized academic support programs. Dr. Gurney earned his Ph.D. in higher education administration from Iowa State in 1980. He received a master's degree in counseling and student personnel work and a bachelor of science in English education, both from Ohio State University.

The staff which Dr. Gurney has assembled for the Academic Support Unit boasts equally impressive credentials.

Dr. Javaune Adams-Gaston coordinates the developmental services arm of the Unit, organizing the student-athlete orientation, drug education and career programs. A licensed clinical psychologist, Dr. Adams-Gaston also coordinates the various counseling programs offered.

John Bowman, coordinator of academic counseling, Bea Pray, coordinator of certification services, and John Fritz, coordinator of student services, complete the Academic Support Unit.

Bowman coordinates academic counseling and academic monitoring. He also is in charge of verifying each students' satisfactory progress toward a degree. His extensive experience in higher education as an academic advisor on the College Park campus provides student-athletes with an excellent counseling resource.

Pray handles a variety of responsibilities relating to student services and certification, student-athlete housing, financial aid and academic counseling. She also coordinates the ever-increasing flow of certification paperwork to verify student-athletes' eligibility. Pray also supervises the distribution of special recognition awards, which each year are presented to student-athletes for outstanding achievement in the classroom.

Tutors, supervised study sessions and the athletic bookroom are coordinated by Fritz. In the past year, the athletics department has increased the number of tutors available to student-athletes to more than 100, four times last year's level.

Together the fivesome which comprises the Academic Support Unit provides each student-athlete with experienced assistance throughout their University of Maryland career ... and beyond.

John Bowman: specialists fill administrative roles designed to make sure academic and athletic goals are realized.

Bea Pray: experienced professionals abound in academic counseling.

Terp Strength and Conditioning

Preparing an athlete to play a particular sport is the mission of the Strength and Conditioning program at Maryland. Proper training leads to more confidence on the athlete's part, and translates into a competitive, aggressive Terrapin.

Strength and Conditioning is directed by Frank Costello, an extraordinary competitor and coach. As a Terrapin undergraduate, he was the third ranked high jumper in the world, NCAA Champion and four-time All-America. As coach he led Maryland to both the IC4A Indoor and Outdoor team titles and was NCAA District Coach of the Year. Maryland's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator since 1981, Costello adds a unique dimension in not only prescribing conditioning regimens, but also in helping to coach the whole athlete.

Costello, and assistants Dave Pacella and Steve Wetzel, begin the road to physically preparing an athlete to play their sport by conferring with that sport's coach, and then testing and evaluating the individual. Weight training, speed training, flexibility training—all could be part of a balanced prescription to excel, depending on the sport.

Maryland's commitment to strength and conditioning grows with the explosion of interest among athletes and coaches. Men's and women's sports, team and individual competition—every sport is involved. Two weight rooms now exist, with even more and better facilities part of an overall upgrading planned for the next few years.

MARYLAND COACH'S CORNER

The "Maryland Coach's Corner," Bob Wade's weekly televison show, will provide Terrapin hoop fans with an inside look at Maryland Basketball.

Johnny Holliday, the popular radio "Voice of the Terrapins," will host the half-hour program on Home Team Sports.

Each week, Johnny and Coach Wade will review past Terp tilts with highlights and discussion. Player interviews will bring viewers closer to the young men who take the court for the University.

Regular features also include a chalkboard segment in which Coach Wade will diagram a key play from a previous game and explain the hows and whys of the X's and O's. In addition, preproduced pieces which focus on some behind-the-scenes aspects of the basketball program will be aired.

To wrap up the program each week, Johnny and Coach Wade will take a look a the week ahead, with clips of upcoming Terp foes.
